“Guiding the Future of Education: Role for Virginia Teacher Educators”

David Ritchey, Executive Director of ATE

Dr. Ritchey has more than 20 years experience with trade and professional associations, most recently with the Association of School Business Officials International before coming to ATE. While with ASBO he was Director of Communications and Marketing, Director of Government and Public Affairs, and Interim Executive Director. He has written three books and has authored numerous articles for different magazines including three for the flagship publication of the American Society of Association Executives, Associations Now.

“Teacher Performance Assessment: New Directions”

Sharon Robinson, President and CEO of AACTE

Dr. Robinson was selected as AACTE's top executive in 2005 and assumed leadership of the association in April of that year. In selecting Dr. Robinson, AACTE's board of directors acknowledged her strong commitment to high-quality teaching, rigorous scholarship, and diversity in the nation's teaching workforce. A lifelong civil rights activist, Robinson has waged a personal crusade to realize the nation's moral and professional responsibility to educate and maximize the potential of minority and disabled students.
